If you can help out on the day or would like to donate anything please let us know.

Sarah Harding and Melanie Ingleson have kindly said they will organise the refreshments and thank you to all who have offered their help so far.

Contact either Ian Cartwright - ian.csautomotive@yahoo.co.uk

Colin or Vera Oates - oates3jj@btinternet.com Judith Pressley - pressley.j@hotmail.co.uk or leave a message at the Black Horse for us. Thanks and we look forward to seeing you at the volunteer days and on the day.

Suspicious car in Ingleton prompts offer of help

A vehicle was spotted in the village with the occupants acting in a suspicious manner. This information was emailed to the IdPP readers and, as a consequence, Deborah Holmes has provided future advice and assistance in her role as a trading standards officer. Deborah has written:

Please be vigilant and take a note of any vehicle registration numbers and the time and location of sighting and report any suspicious sightings to the Police on 101.

If you are cold called and offered home improvement work please let us know. Please do not deal with uninvited doorstep callers and if you require assistance with this please call the Citizens Advice Consumer Service on 03454 04 05 06 or online

.and a plug.... Many of our readers did not receive the warning because they receive paper copies only. Isn't this a very good reason to sign up to an email copy of the IdPP? Editor. Contact: ingletonparishpump@gmail.com

A Letter from the Vicar (or rather some interesting things about a major patron saint)

On 1st March Wales celebrates its patron saint, David - or, in Welsh, Dewi or Dafydd. He is indisputably British, and is revered wherever Welsh people have settled. As with most figures from the so-called 'Dark Ages' (he lived in the sixth century), reliable details about his life are scarce, but there are enough for us to form a picture of a formidably austere, disciplined and charismatic leader, who led the Church in Wales through turbulent years and fought tenaciously for the faith.

It's likely that he was strengthened in his ministry by time spent in Ireland, where the Church was stronger and more confident. Early records tell of a meeting of Irish church leaders with three 'Britons', as they were described, among them 'bishop David'. His mother, Non, is also celebrated as a saint in Wales, where a number of churches are dedicated in her name.

That he founded a monastery at Menevia, in Pembrokeshire, seems beyond doubt. It later became the site of St David's cathedral and the settlement which is now the smallest city in the United Kingdom. From Menevia David embarked on preaching and teaching missions across Wales, and probably beyond. His eloquence was legendary.

At a famous Synod of the Church, held at a Carmarthenshire village called Brefi, he preached passionately against the Arian heresy - indeed, so passionately that he was (according to some accounts) immediately named as archbishop of Wales. The village is now known as Llandewi Brefi - brefi in Welsh is a hillock, and legend claims that it appeared miraculously in order to provide the eloquent bishop with a pulpit.

His monks avoided wine and beer, drinking only water. Indeed, he and they lived lives of rigorous austerity and constant prayer, in the manner of the Desert Fathers of the Eastern Church. The date of David's death is disputed - either 589 or 601. It wasn't until the twelfth century that he was generally accepted as the patron saint of Wales, and pilgrimages to St David's were highly regarded in the following centuries - including two made by English kings, William I and Henry II.

It's traditional for Welsh people to wear daffodils on St David's Day (Gwyl Dewi Sant in Welsh) - but there seems no particular reason for it, beyond the fact that they tend to make their early Spring appearance round about his day - oh, and they look nice!

Happy St David's Day to you all. Best wishes, Ken Seventon

Report from February PACT Meeting.

In the last month there has been a significant increase in vehicle theft and burglaries in the Barnard Castle Police area, but not around Ingleton. There have been two clusters of burglaries on Friday 7th & 10th February between 18:00 and 22:00 in unoccupied houses. The Police are asking residents to be vigilant, ensuring houses are locked and some lights are left on when unoccupied. The Police have a number of light timers available free on a first come first served basis from Barnard Castle Police Office at the Barnard Emergency Services Centre, 1, Crook Lane, Barnard Castle, DL12 8JX.

Heartstart course

A Heartstart course, which covers CPR and some basic life saving skills, is being held in Ingleton Village Hall on Monday 30th March at 6pm. The last meeting was a great success so hopefully the few people that unfortunately couldn't make it, can attend. Everyone of all ages is welcome to come along for this refresher. It's free!

Ingleton Village Fayre - Tombola

100 milk bottle tops from plastic cartons, any colour, are wanted for the Tombola stall at the Fayre. They're being used instead of raffle tickets so we can more easily change inappropriate prizes (eg a child winning a bottle of gin). Please give them to Christy Matson, Greencroft or any one of the organisers.

INGLETON And DISTRICT W.I.

There was a "sweet" start to 2020 for the ladies who met in the Village Hall on Wednesday 12th February. Anne welcomed members and dealt with the business whilst our speaker Naila Laundy prepared her 'chocolate delights'.

It was a great pleasure to welcome Naila again. She showed us how to make a ganache, a relatively simple mixture of warmed dark chocolate and either cream or a sugar and water mix. She had earlier made a cream mix which had set and we were able to make it into little balls which could be covered with cocoa powder or icing sugar. Finally she made a water ganache which was quite runny and gave us fun dipping things like glacé cherries, satsuma pieces, even muesli into the mixture. There were some lovely sticky fingers to lick!

Liz thanked Naila before we all enjoyed tea and biscuits.

Our next meeting will be on March 11th. The speaker is to be Lynn Defty and the subject is "From Telegraph Boy to Bomber Boy"

The following month will be an open night on April 8th when. Chris Lloyd will talk about Patons and Baldwin. He is always a great speaker, do join us every one is welcome!

The Pavilion Field Working Group

The Pavilion Field Working Group is getting prepared for the summer and is interested in your ideas. It is hoping to organise some afternoon teas and a few sporting activities.

Please let the PFWG know if anyone interested in:

- organising a sporting activity
- a boot camp or Yoga for all ages, depending on interest. (It will, if sufficient numbers, become a regular activity throughout the summer.)

The PFWG would also like to take this opportunity to remind you the pavilion and field is a facility belonging to the community so, for a donation, please feel free to book it for sports parties or outdoor events You can do this by contacting:
clerk.ingletonparishcouncil@gmail.com

Cricket will be back for the season so bookings will be organised around the matches. The PFWG hope to support them and help organise the annual social match to start the season.

Contacts for the PFWG are Melanie Ingleson, Judith Pressley, Claire Humble, Mel from Black Horse and Michelle -text 07746083205
